Thou shalt not clone

An ethical argument against the reproductive cloning of humans

Christof Tannert

EMBO reports (2006) 7, 238–240. doi:10.1038/sj.embor.7400653

In the March issue, we unfortunately published an error in the last paragraph of the main text on p240. It should have stated that Schweitzer was a 'practicing physician and a practical ethicist'.
