It has been recognised by the authors that several errors were published in a corrigendum to correct a spelling error in an author name.

The author Allan Weissman recognised a corrigendum was published to correct his name, when in fact, it was correct in the first instance. The corrigendum was requested by a co-author of this paper.

There was an error introduced in the corrigendum to the author name RS Rogers, inadvertently an 'm' was added to the end of the name in error appearing as RS Rogersm.
