Extremity-Saving Surgery and Reconstruction: From Microsurgery Reconstruction to Transplantation

Chih-Hung Lin, M.D.

Fu-Chan Wei, M.D.

It is with great pleasure that I introduce this issue of Seminars in Plastic Surgery on “Extremity-Saving Surgery and Reconstruction: From Microsurgery Reconstruction to Transplantation.”

Our two world-renowned guest editors have compiled a comprehensive issue written by leaders in the field. The topics covered range from micro-surgical coverage of extremity wounds to hand transplantation. This issue should make an excellent reference for any plastic surgeon facing these difficult problems.
