AcademyHealth Update

NCHS/AcademyHealth Health Policy Fellowship

Application Deadline: January 9, 2012

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's (CDC) National Center for Health Statistics (NCHS) and AcademyHealth are seeking applicants for their 2012 Health Policy Fellowship. This program brings visiting scholars in health services research-related disciplines to NCHS to collaborate on studies of interest to policymakers and the health services research community using NCHS data systems.

Applications are welcome from doctoral students through senior researchers and/or faculty. For more information about the fellowship and application requirements, visit www.academyhealth.org/nchs or e-mail AcademyHealth at nchs@academyhealth.org.

National Health Policy Conference

February 13–14, 2012 — Washington, D.C.

The National Health Policy Conference (NHPC) is your first opportunity to find out directly from health care leaders about their policy priorities for the coming year. Hear experts from government, industry and academia recap the progress of reform at the federal and state levels and share their perspectives on the implementation challenges and impact on stakeholders. For more information or to register, visit www.academyhealth.org/nhpc.

Annual Research Meeting (ARM) – Call for Abstracts Opens Nov. 1

The call for abstracts for the 2012 Annual Research Meeting (ARM) opens November 1. More than 50 percent of the conference agenda is decided through the abstract review process. Submit your work by January 12 to help shape the 2012 conference agenda. The ARM is scheduled for June 24–26 in Orlando. For details, visit www.academyhealth.org/arm.
