Kay's Perinatal Crossword Puzzle

ACROSS

1 During the first few weeks of parenting, mothers may feel as exhausted as they did in labor during _____. (Corwin/JPE 8,1)

5 A backpack cradleboard providing warmth and security when transporting infants over rough terrain by Aboriginal women. (Loos/JPE 8,1)

6 The diastolic BP at birth was _____ for infants of smoking mothers than non-smoking mothers in this study. (Flanders-Stephens/JPE 8,1)

9 An objective in Polomeno's Perspective is to describe the male partner's role in _____. (Polomeno/JPE 8,1)

11 This study was designed to test the effectiveness of childbirth education that includes _____ preparation during pregnancy. (Corwin/JPE 8,1)

15 Loos' model builds on the _____ in the targeted group and community. (Loos/JPE 8,1)

19 A prenatal class was termed a _____ to gain more acceptance by the Aboriginal women and enhance attendance. (Loos/JPE 8,1)

20 To merge preparation for parenting into childbirth classes, Corwin uses the _____ between labor coping skills and parenting skills to integrate the techniques. (Corwin/JPE 8,1)

22 One of the goals of Polomeno's Perspective is to demystify _____ and breastfeeding. (Polomeno/JPE 8,1)

23 Secreted by the posterior pituitary, _____ is responsible for the milk ejection reflex. (Polomeno/JPE 8,1)

24 The reawakening of a new mother's libido is a _____-step process. (Polomeno/JPE 8,1)

26 Ganem describes the decreased need of a lactating mother to seek out her partner for pleasure and affection as Affection _____. (Polomeno/JPE 8,1)

27 A pre- and post-Prenatal Parenting _____ was administered to both groups in Corwin's study. (Corwin/JPE 8,1)

29 The lactating woman's breasts may be _____ during breastfeeding, yet touching by her partner may not evoke sexual desire or response. (Polomeno/JPE 8,1)

30 _____ is the core concept in Corwin's expanded model integrating parenting into traditional childbirth education. (Corwin/JPE 8,1)

DOWN

2 Loos' Prenatal Education Planning Model was applied to _____ women in an isolated northern community in Canada. (Loos/JPE 8,1)

3 The women tested in Loos' study were economically _____. (Loos/JPE 8,1)

4 Levels of _____ in infants are positively correlated with maternal smoking and number of smokers in the home. (Flanders-Stephens/JPE 8,1)

7 When a woman is lactating, she may have a milk _____ reflex when she experiences an orgasm. (Polomeno/JPE 8,1)

8 The major metabolite of nicotine was measured in each infant's _____ to determine the level of chronic exposure to cigarette smoke in this study. (Flanders-Stephens/JPE 8,1)

10 Corwin parallels the techniques needed to cope in postpartum with the traditionally learned _____ education skills. (Corwin/JPE 8,1)

12 Populations of women at risk during the pre-conceptual/prenatal period include poor, adolescent women and women of _____ backgrounds other than the dominate one. (Loos/JPE 8,1)

13 To resolve vaginal dryness that may cause pain for lactating mothers during intercourse, the use of a _____-based lubricating gel may help. (Polomeno/JPE 8,1)

14 _____ Systems Model was used to guide the study of infant exposure to ETS. (Flanders-Stephens/JPE 8,1)

16 ETS stands for _____ tobacco smoke. (Flanders-Stephens/JPE 8,1)

17 Loos' Prenatal Ed. model provides prenatal health strategies that meet the needs of the community, encourages attendance, and secures _____ of the community. (Loos/JPE 8,1)

18 A goal of Corwin's study is to assist in breaking the _____ of dysfunction in families. (Corwin/JPE 8,1)

21 The _____ was the age group target of Loos' application of her planning model for prenatal education. (Loos/JPE 8,1)

23 Polomeno's Perspective explains the sexual arousal during breastfeeding and its parallel process of coital _____. (Polomeno/JPE 8,1)

25 This study was designed to _____ the effectiveness of using a broad conceptualization of CE that includes parenting preparation in pregnancy. (Corwin/JPE 8,1)

28 Infant physiologic responses of exposure to _____ is explored in this study. (Flanders-Stephens/JPE 8,1)

Created by:

Kay Raheja RN, FACCE

(See solution on page 54)