FROM EDITOR'S DESK

Association of Clinical Biochemists of India through Indian Journal of Clinical Biochemistry (IJCB) is continuing its efforts to provide as much up to date information as possible to its readers by bringing out special supplements / sections on various topics. In this January 1999 issue of IJCB, besides few regular papers, there is a special section of invited papers on CURRENT CONCEPTS ON SOME ASPECTS OF CLINICAL CHEMISTRY. It has been possible to include these invited papers, thanks to the efforts of Dr. Sheshadri Narayanan, New York, USA and Dr. T. F. Ashavaid, Mumbai.
