Correction to 'The mystery of extreme non-coding conservation'

Nathan Harmston, Anja Barešić and Boris Lenhard

Phil. Trans. R. Soc. B 368, 20130021 (2013; Published 11 November 2013)
(doi:10.1098/rstb.2013.0021)

At the end of the second paragraph in §3b of the manuscript, entitled 'Emergence and recruitment of conserved non-coding elements', there is a typo. The authors refer to the MER21 family of transposable elements; this should have been reported as MER121.
