Thank You to Journal of Chiropractic Medicine Peer Reviewers for 2014

Initially started as Chiropractic Technique in 1989, the first volume of the Journal of Chiropractic Medicine (JCM) was published in 2002.¹ Since that time, the JCM depends upon the editorial board and peer reviewers to contribute to the peer review and scientific publications process. In 2010, we began recognizing the researchers and scholars who have provided review for the journal.^{2–5}

We wish to recognize the dedicated and supportive editorial board members and peer reviewers who completed manuscript reviews for the JCM in 2014.

Peer reviewers for the year 2014 include:
