An error appeared in the 15 July 2015 issue of the Journal [Campbell AP, Guthrie KA, Englund JA, et al. Clinical Outcomes Associated with Respiratory Virus Detection Before Allogeneic Hematopoietic Stem Cell Transplant. Clin Infect Dis 2015; 61:192–202]. In the last paragraph of the Discussion, the next to last sentence of the Discussion should read “The high mortality in children aged <5 years (2 of 12 [17%]) with pre-HCT respiratory viruses is noteworthy” (not “The high mortality in children aged <5 years (2 of 6 [33%]). . .”).

The authors regret this error.
