The December 10, 2008, editorial by Wong and Cunningham entitled, “Using Predictive Biomarkers to Select Patients With Advanced Colorectal Cancer for Treatment With Epidermal Growth Factor Receptor Antibodies” (J Clin Oncol 26:5668-5670, 2008) contained errors.

In Figure 1, P13K was used in the label for the blue section of the pie chart, whereas it should have been PI3K as follows: “Nonresponder: Loss of PTEN or PI3K mutation % unknown.”

Also in Figure 1, the following footnote was inadvertently omitted: (*)Possibly overcomes upregulated EGFR or circulating soluble EGFR.

The following Acknowledgment was inadvertently omitted: “The authors acknowledge NHS funding to the NIHR Biomedical Research Centre.”

The online version has been corrected in departure from the print.

The February 10, 2009, ASCO special article by Winer et al, entitled, “Clinical Cancer Advances 2008: Major Research Advances in Cancer Treatment, Prevention, and Screening—A Report From the American Society of Clinical Oncology” (J Clin Oncol 27:812-826, 2009), contained errors.

In the Breast Cancer section, under Major Advances, reference 3 should have been cited in the second to last sentence of the first paragraph instead of reference 1. In the last sentence of the paragraph, women older than 70 years should have been noted instead of women older than 70.2 years, and reference 4 should have been cited, as follows:

“A 2008 analysis of the same patient group found that the reduced risk of breast cancer recurrence persisted among all age groups, including women older than age 70 years.⁴” In the last sentence of the second paragraph, references 5 and 6 should have been cited instead of references 3 and 4. In the last sentence of the fifth paragraph, reference 7 should have been cited instead of reference 5. In the last sentence of the sixth paragraph, reference 8 should have been cited instead of reference 6. In the first sentence of the last paragraph, reference 9 should have been cited instead of reference 7.

In the Breast Cancer section, under Notable Advances, reference 10a should have been cited in the last sentence of the third paragraph.
