CORRECTIONS

Author Correction

The April 10, 2012, Review Article by Li et al, entitled, “Evidence-Based Treatment of Depression in Patients With Cancer” (J Clin Oncol 30:1187-1196, 2012), contained an error.

In Table 4, the reference for Pezzella et al (ref. 102) appeared in the first row (Paroxetine) and the tenth row (Amitriptyline) under the Negative column, whereas it should have appeared under the Positive column in both rows. Also, the level of evidence for Amitriptyline was not given, whereas it should have been II.

The authors apologize for the mistake.

Journal Corrections

The May 1, 2008, article by Gamelin et al, entitled, “Individual Fluorouracil Dose Adjustment Based on Pharmacokinetic Follow-Up Compared With Conventional Dosage: Results of a Multicenter Randomized Trial of Patients With Metastatic Colorectal Cancer” (J Clin Oncol 26:2099-2105, 2008), contained an error.

In the third column and fourth row of Table 1, the fluorouracil dose adjustment ($\pm$ % of previous dose) of the 1,200-1,500 $\mu\text{g/L}$ fluorouracil plasma concentration was given as +3, whereas it should have been +30.

The online version has been corrected in departure from the print. Journal of Clinical Oncology apologizes for the mistake.

The October 1, 2012, article by Wong et al, entitled, “Phase II Trial of Cetuximab With or Without Paclitaxel in Patients With Advanced Urothelial Tract Carcinoma” (J Clin Oncol 30:3545-3551, 2012) contained an error in the online version indexed in PubMed.

The corresponding author’s affiliation was inadvertently given as University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PA, whereas it should have been Fox Chase Cancer Center, Philadelphia, PA.

Journal of Clinical Oncology apologizes for the mistake.

The August 20, 2013, article by Raymond et al, entitled, “Adrenocortical Carcinoma Is a Lynch Syndrome–Associated Cancer” (J Clin Oncol 31:3012-3018, 2013), contained an error.

In the Results section, the third-to-last sentence in the last paragraph was inadvertently inserted, and should have been omitted. The second-to-last sentence contained the correct information, as follows:

“The ACC tumor from the proband whose brother tested positive for an MLH1 mutation had IHC staining, demonstrating absence of MLH1 and PMS2 with retention of MSH2 and MSH6.”
