Editorial: A New Achievement to the European Endodontic Journal and Appreciation to Editors and Reviewers

Ismail Davut Capar, Hany Mohamed Aly Ahmed

At its fourth year, the European Endodontic Journal (EEJ) has a new achievement after successful indexation in Web of Science Emergency Citation Index and Scopus. Very recently, the EEJ has been accepted for indexation in PubMed Central (PMC), and and PMC will take content back in all previous issues since 2016. This means all previous publications will be soon listed in PMC, and this paves the way for wider distribution of EEJ worldwide. For 2019, we have received 121 submissions (Fig. 1), with an acceptance rate of about 26%.

The expansion of EEJ has also been involving the editorial board, and we would like to welcome our new editorial board members; Salvatore Sauro (Spain), Giampiero Rossi-Fedele (Italy), Emmanuel Silva (Brazil) and Frank Setzer (USA).

We also would like to express our deepest gratitude to the Associate Editors - Flávio Alves, Frédéric Bukiet, Till Dammachke, Velayutham Gopikrishna, James Leo Gutmann, Hyeon Cheol Kim, Ahmad Madarati, Jukka P. Matinlinna, Montse Mercadé, Gianluca Plotino, Mohammad Ali Saghir, Gianrico Spagnuolo, Hüseyin Sinan Topçuoğlu, Laurence J Walsh.
